

GUARANTEEING HEALTHY HOMES THE ECO DESIGN ADVISOR CONFERENCE 2018 CQ HOTEL CUBA, WELLINGTON

PROGRAMME DAY ONE: Tuesday 20th March @28Feb18

8:30	REGISTRATION
9:00	CONFERENCE OPENING ADDRESS Hon Phil Twyford, Minister of Housing and Urban Development
9:30	KEYNOTE SPEAKER Rod Oram (Journalist) will provide the conference with an informed perspective on the state of New Zealand's housing. Drawing from his professional understanding of business, economics and politics as well as his personal journey to make his home more sustainable, Rod will inform, enlighten and (hopefully) inspire hope about the potential for housing to contribute positively to New Zealanders' lives.
10:10	Morning tea
10:30	RENTAL HOUSING SECTOR Cade Bedford (MBIE: Housing and Urban Branch, HUB) on the Healthy Homes Guarantee Act. Letisha Nicholas (Otago University, Masters Research) with insights into the Energy Cultures of tenants and landlords. Alison Cadman (Dwell Housing, CEO) with experiences of a social housing landlord. Panel Discussion: questions from the floor
12:00	Lunch
1:00	HOUSING AND HEALTH Keith Gardner (Ministry of Health) on policies and programmes where housing is the focus of improving health outcomes. Nicky Cranshaw (Auckland District Health Board) on research into health outcomes from housing interventions. Erana Severne (Waikato District Health Board) gives a practitioner's perspective of housing and health interventions. Panel Discussion: questions from the floor
2:30	Afternoon tea
2:50	LARGE-SCALE INTERVENTIONS Rosemary Goodyear (Statistics New Zealand) on the Housing and Physical Environment supplement on this year's General Social Survey. Dr Kay Saville-Smith (CRESA, Building Better Homes Town and Cities National Science Challenge) with the evidence that New Zealand could address housing demand through partitioning existing stock. Tony Moore (Christchurch City Council) provides insights from implementation of Build Back Smarter programme (upgrade at point of earthquake repair) Panel Discussion: questions from the floor
5:00	NETWORKING DRINKS

PROGRAMME DAY TWO: Wednesday 21st March

8:30	REGISTRATION
9:00	WELCOME
9:10	DESIGN AND INNOVATION Daimon Otto (Co-Founder of Tallwood and Board Member of PrefabNZ) presents his vision on disruption and digital transformation of residential construction. Anahera Rawiri (Project Manager Ngāti Whātua Ōrākei Whai Rawa Ltd) provides insight into innovative approaches to quality homes for the benefit of the current and future generations of the Ngāti Whātua Ōrākei hapū. Panel Discussion: questions from the floor
10:10	Morning tea
10:30	WORKING SESSION Nelson Lebo (EDA Palmerston North City Council) leads an interactive session with his EDA colleagues on: Why isn't all our knowledge turning into action? Let's unlock this.
12:00	Lunch
1:00	BEST PRACTICE WARM & DRY Phoebe Taptiklis (PhD candidate Massey University) on research insights from her investigations into data from three House Condition Surveys Stephen McNeil (BRANZ) on balancing airtightness and ventilation in our homes Richard Popenhagen (EDA, Nelson City Council) on building a new home when you are a home performance expert Panel Discussion: questions from the floor
2:30	Afternoon tea
2:50	EXCEEDING THE MINIMUM Jo Reilly (Certified Home Performance Advisor) on working alongside group builders to step above NZ's Building Code minimums. Casimir MacGregor (BRANZ) with research findings from focus groups with consumers who have sought to build beyond the minimum. Bob Burnett (Bob Burnett Architecture) on inspiring NZ to strive for homes that perform to the highest standards. Panel Discussion: questions from the floor
5:00	CLOSE